We plan on restating the notes, so if you would send them endorsed over to the company, and not cancelled, that would be appreciated. We don't want any suggestion that the underlying indebtedness was cancelled.

Dear all,

This seems like a more logical conclusion - the cancellation of the notes which will now be incorrect (referencing the 2003 agreement) and having the Company replace them. Please let me know how you would like to handle this. If you'd like to deliver new notes to STB at closing, we can send over the notes for cancellation by your team.

Best,

Justin

Dear all,

Having thought about this a little bit, does it not make sense for us to deliver the promissory notes for cancellation (to either STB or the Company) with the Company issuing new notes/powers at closing. This seems more fitting especially given that there is a reference to the 2003 credit agreement in the current notes.

Let me know if you would like to discuss.

Best,
Justin

Dear all,

Please find attached a revised Collateral Receipt reflecting minor comments from STB and our understanding that notes will not be delivered with the original stock certificates. They will instead be endorsed by Lehman back to the applicable Lender and then pledged by that Lender. We will get these over for signatures tomorrow morning and will get them to STB as soon as possible (but can make no assurances as to timing since they must go to Lehman and come back).

Best,
Justin
